MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT : Brookings Conference of 6 December 1974

Bill:

1. The attached memorandum describes a problem on having available on 6 December the necessary senior Agency representative to handle the scheduled Brookings Conference for Business Executives.

2. It is my own opinion that the individual who handles this matter should be a substantive officer, and it is my further opinion, a visceral one admittedly, that it might be better if Bill Nelson not be asked to do it. Therefore, I suggest that, in the absence of those who usually perform, George Carver, by background and by title, might be the next logical choice. I would have no particular hesitancy in doing it, but I believe my above-stated reasoning to be the overriding fact.

3. May I have your pleasure.
